

2019 Hokkaido Training Sale Preview

The first sale of the year, the 2019 Hokkaido Training Sale is on Tuesday, May 21st in Sapporo, Japan. 248 two-year-olds in training are cataloged this year and will have an exhibition gallop on Monday, May 20th. The horses will be available from Sunday, May 19th for viewing by buyers.

The sale has had great success in the past, producing such champions as six-time G1 winner Maurice(JPN) and three-time G1 winner Hishi Miracle(JPN).

97 different stallions are represented between the 248 entries in this year's sale. Plenty young sires, set to debut this spring will be available including G1 Japan Derby winner Kizuna(JPN), G1 Japan Cup winner Epiphaneia(JPN), dual G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) winner Fenomeno(JPN), American import and G1 winner Majestic Warrior(USA), G1 Yasuda Kinen winner Real Impact(JPN), six-time G1 winner Gold Ship(JPN), G1 NHK Mile Cup winner Curren Black Hill(JPN), American Import and G1 winner Eskendereya(USA), and G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) winner Spielberg(JPN), just to name a few.

Several promising sires who have recently made their debut last year have lots available like last year's leading freshman sire Just a Way(JPN), runner up for leading freshman sire Dunkirk(USA), Belshazzar(JPN), To the Glory(JPN) and Grand Prix Boss(JPN).

Many established sires will also be offered at the sale including G1 winners who have sired G1 winners like Admire Moon(JPN), Daiwa Major(JPN), Rulership(JPN), Gold Allure(JPN), Grass Wonder(USA), Henny Hughes(USA), King's Best(USA), Kurofune(USA), Neo Universe(JPN), Orfevre(JPN), Screen Hero(JPN), Swept Overboard(USA), Tanino Gimlet(JPN), and Victoire Pisa(JPN).
